

10th Guys Debate Date!

Guidelines

- (1) Don't just give an opinion, look it up in the Bible.
- (2) Be prepared to give a good argument.
- (3) Then, speak the truth in love.
- (4) Ask questions and clarifying questions
- (5) Be a good sport and look for common ground
- (6) Be a good listener!
- (7) Admit when your opponent has a good point
- (8) Do not over-react to your opponent

Possible Topics

1. Does the Bible support or oppose the concept of environmental stewardship and climate change action?
2. Should religious organizations be subject to taxation like other businesses and institutions?
3. Should the Ten Commandments be displayed in public spaces like schools and courthouses?
4. Should the Bible play a role in shaping government policy and laws?
5. How does the Bible address the issue of wealth and poverty, and what responsibilities do Christians have in this regard?
6. What is the biblical perspective on the role of art, music, and culture in the life of a Christian?
7. How should Christians navigate the tension between their religious beliefs and the secular entertainment and media they consume?
8. How does the Bible address the use of technology in worship and religious practice, such as online church services and digital outreach?

Format

2 mins side FOR presents; 2 mins side AGAINST presents;

1 min FOR response; 1 min AGAINST response;

4 Min discussion